An entrepreneur 'is someone who specializes in taking judgmental decisions about the coordination of scarce resources.' (Casson, 2003:20) 'Today, an entrepreneur is a innovator or developer who recognizes and seizes opportunities; converts those opportunities into workable/marketable ideas; adds value through time, effort, money, or skills; assumes the risks of the competitive marketplace to implement these ideas; and realizes the rewards from these efforts.' (Kuratko, 2008:4)

Momentum - Kelley School of Business. The ability to change the future is within all of us. Yet personal and social inhibitions hold many of us back, and we never tap into our full potential as innovative thinkers. The meaning of innovation, an element so critical to the world's development has become ambiguous through overuse in the media and pop
